Bio

Jeanine received her Bible training at Moody Bible Institute. In addition to being a recording artist and public speaker, she has been in full-time ministry with her husband (and two daughters) for the past two decades. She has recently released a “Living Your Faith” teaching series and has just completed her first book entitled Legacy: A Guided Family Heritage Prayer Journal.

Leaving a Legacy Symposiums

What is the legacy you want to pass down to your children and grandchildren? Do you sometimes feel powerless to be the godly example that could make a significant impact on future generations? We're told in Scripture to remember the things God has done for us, and to pass them down to our children, and children's children. Jeanine's Leaving a Legacy Symposium helps women systematically recognize, organize, and catalogue the wonderful things God does for them on a daily basis. She takes an overwhelming task and breaks it down, making it an enjoyable and meaningful lifestyle
